"On this wonderful performance the voice of criticism has been uniformly favourable. 'This Polyglott,' says Michaelis, 'is of the utmost importance to a critic, not only on account of the extracts which it contains from a variety of important MSS., but particularly on account of the Oriental Versions, from which he must collect various readings to the New Testament.'—DR. AUTOGRAPH NOTES OF LUTHER AND MELANCHTHON.
110 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, thick sm. 4to. in the original stamped wood and leather binding of the period, £21. Argent., 1535

This volume, containing AUTOGRAPH NOTES by LUTHER and MELANCHTHON JOINTLY, may be considered as one of the most interesting volumes in existence. The inside of the covers, both at the beginning and at the end, contain scriptural observations written and signed by LUTHER. On the reverse of the title-page is a passage from the Gospel of St. Luke, evidently from the pen of Melancthon. On the reverse of the leaf, ending the Old and facing the New Testament, is a woodcut of Our Saviour, beneath which are metrical lines with the Initials of Melancthon, P. M.

"I consider," says Mr. Sotheby, "this volume, as containing many notes in the autographs of Luther and Melancthon conjointly, and incontestably as it does, bearing internal proofs of having been actually in their possession; to be of more interest than the copy of the Holy Scriptures in German, which some few years since publicly sold for £267."
